

Forfar Instrumental Band: Hear them in The Square on Saturday afternoon, with a possible retreat to The Kirk in the unlikely event of it being cold or wet.

Freewheelin: a local group featuring Joyce Ramsay (accordion) Bill Carr (singer) Alf Birse (guitar) and fiddle player Alana Gowans. They play a great range of songs and music and, having made their Kirrie Festival debut in 2016, it's great to have them back again.

Ellen Mitchell: a cracking singer from Glasgow, Ellen is a real tradition bearer with a great repertoire of songs. This year she will be a guest at the festivals in Falkland, Cullerlie and Newcastleton, with the tour coming to a finale here in Angus.

Calum Morrison: is a Glasgow-based guitar, banjo, mandolin and bodhran player and teacher. He's spent the last 4 years touring the UK, Europe, North America, Australia and New Zealand with a variety of shows and productions such as the National Theatre of Scotland and Irish Dance Show 'Celtic Legends', and now feels he can handle a Saturday night in Kirrie.

Sally Simpson: was born and raised in Portobello, Edinburgh, and has gone on to study at the National Centre for Excellence in Trad Music in Plockton, The Royal Music College in Stockholm and The Royal Conservatoire of Scotland. She's in great demand as a performer in a duo with pianist Catriona Hawksworth, and in a band with this year's BBC Young Trad winner, singer Hannah Rarity.

Jim Taylor: following a well-deserved gap year in 2017, Jim is back to work again at Kirrie this year as an MC and singer. A great festival character and welcome addition to events across the country.

The Wayfarers' Project: features young musicians and singers brought together to learn and perform music of the local area. Working with tutors Josie Duncan, Calum Morrison and Sally Simpson in the run up to Festival weekend, they'll play at the Airlie Concert on Saturday night. We thank The Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo Youth Development Fund, administered by Creative Scotland through the Trad Music Forum for making this happen. Any young musicians interested in taking part should email: office@traditionalmusicforum.org

Next Kirrie Festival: 6th - 8th September, 2019

Festival Office: Kirrie Connections, 5 Bank Street (former council access office beside Bank of Scotland).

Kirrie Venue Map: Get this on our website, or pick one up from the festival office.

Tickets can be bought or reserved from:

George Rennie (16 Roods) 01575 573292
Or by emailing: info@kirriefestival.org

To find out any more about the festival contact:

Festival Secretary: Patrick Newman
Rose Cottage, Cortachy, Angus.
01575 540 261
Email: info@kirriefestival.org
Website: www.kirriefestival.org

The Festival has been made possible by the following sponsors (complete at time of printing):

Joseph Aitken and Sons
Creative Scotland
Kerymor Tavern
The Royal Edinburgh Tattoo Youth Development Fund
Trad Music Forum
And other anonymous donations

THE ROYAL EDINBURGH
MILITARY TATTOO

We'd also like to thank all the performers, stewards, chair movers, judges, clerks and other helpers who give their time so generously to the festival. Kirrie Festival is a real labour of love for all concerned, and it's your support and the support of the audiences which make it possible.

If you'd like to become more involved with the festival or have any suggestions then please get in touch.

Also, if you'd like to join or find out more about the TMSA (Traditional Music and Song Association - of which Kirrie Festival is part) their website is www.tmsa.org.uk

37th Kirriemuir Festival of Music and Song

Friday 7th, Saturday 8th, Sunday 9th
September 2018

Ceilidhs, Concerts, Competitions,
Singarounds, Street Entertainment, Sessions

Performers include:

Paul Anderson	Calum Morrison
John Dickson	Freewheelin
Murray Douglas	Sally Simpson
Josie Duncan	Wayfarers' Project
Ellen Mitchell	Joe Aitken
Angus Strathspey & Reel	Angus Folk
Forfar Instrumental Band	Jim Taylor

Saturday 1st September

The Wayfarers' Project starts a week before the Festival. Tutors Josie Duncan (song) Sally Simpson (fiddle) and Calum Morrison (guitar/groupwork) will work with young musicians (11—26 years old) to research, teach and perform songs and music from the local area. To sign up or enquire email: office@traditionalmusicforum.org

Wayfarer's Workshop 1 Websters High School
10:30am - 4pm. Free to take part

Friday 7th September

Opening Concert Airlie Arms Hotel, St Malcolm's Wynd Angus Strathspey & Reel Society, Paul Anderson, John Dickson, Murray Douglas, Ellen Mitchell, Freewheelin, Sally Simpson. MC: Joe Aitken
Starts 8:30pm Tickets £8

Sessions Airlie Arms Lounge Bar ~7:30pm
Kerymor Tavern 9pm

Saturday 8th September

Wayfarer's Workshop 2 In Kirrie, venue tbc
10:30am - 1:30pm. Free to take part

Competitions Happen throughout the day on Saturday in the Old Parish Kirk Hall, and in the Kirk itself.

Kirk in the morning

Fiddle Junior, Senior, Local, J.F. Dickie Cup

Accordion Junior, Senior, Local

Ceilidh Band

Instrumental Pairs

Kirk Hall in the morning/afternoon

Men's Singing Junior, Senior

Women's Singing Junior, Senior

Bothy Ballad

Local Singer

Novice Singer

Kirk in the afternoon

Mouthorgan

Jews Harp

Tin Whistle

Melodeon

Concertina

Oral Whistle

Diddling

Storytelling Junior, Senior

Doric Verse under 8, 9 - 12, 13 -15, Senior

Chorus Cup is held during the evening singaround in Masonic Hall

Starts 10:30am

Starts 11:30am

follows accordion

follows ceilidh band

Starts 11am

Singing classes are run together

(alternating male / female) to let folk hear all the singing

Starts 1pm

follows mouthorgan

follows jews harp

follows tin whistle

follows melodeon

follows concertina

follows oral whistle

Starts 2:30pm

follows storytelling

Saturday 8th September continued

Forfar Instrumental Band 2 - 5pm in The Square

Sessions

Three Bellies Brae: Afternoon/Eve

Rennie's Shop ~ 10am - 6pm

Thrums ~ 2:30pm

Airlie Lounge ~ 3pm (singaround)

Prizewinners Concert Kirk Hall, The Square

See the singers, musicians, and storytellers get their prizes and listen to them perform.

7 - 8:30pm. Tickets £5

Concert Ceilidh Bowling Club, Brechin Road

Angus Folk. Paul Anderson, John Dickson, Murray Douglas, Josie Duncan, Freewheelin, Sally Simpson. MC: Jim Taylor

8 - 10:30pm. Tickets £8

Concert Ceilidh Airlie Arms Hotel, St Malcolm's Wynd

The Wayfarers' Project, Paul Anderson, John Dickson, Murray Douglas, Ellen Mitchell, Freewheelin, Sally Simpson. MC: Joe Aitken

Starts 9:00pm. Tickets £8

Singaround Masonic Hall, Roods

Starts 11pm. No Bar. BYOB.

Sunday 9th September

Kirk Service The Glens and Kirriemuir Old Parish Kirk with Angus Strathspey and Reel Society. Starts 11:15am

Angus Heritage Week Talk Thrums Hotel, Bank Street Paul Anderson talks about fiddle playing, fiddle players, neep production and dairy cow genetics.

12:15pm - 1:15pm. Admission Free

Sessions

Three Bellies Brae: Afternoon

Thrums: Afternoon

Thistle Club Concert Kirrie Thistle Club, Westview Park

Performers include: Joe Aitken, Jim Taylor, Paul Anderson, John Dickson, Murray Douglas, Josie Duncan, Ellen Mitchell, Freewheelin, Sally Simpson. And, as ever, a wheel of quality songs and tunes from audience members.

2pm—5:30pm. Tickets £8

Closing Concert Ceilidh Airlie Arms Hotel

Featuring surviving guests and others.

Starts 7:30pm. Admission Free

Music Sessions

Regular venues include Kerymor Tavern (up from the campsite on Glamis Road), Three Bellies Brae (generally instrumental in the main bar, and singing sessions through the back) Roods Bar, Rennie's Shop (2 St Malcolm's Wynd) Airlie Arms (doonstairs lounge) and Thrums Hotel. We've put some of the main sessions in the programme to give everyone a better idea of what goes on most years. This is just a guide however, and visiting musicians are welcome to start an impromptu session wherever appropriate.

Festival Guests

Joe Aitken: Reigning world bothy ballad champion and a great supporter and exponent of traditional singing. Joe's also one of our main MCs and our first choice transporter of chairs and sound equipment.

Angus Folk: A 20-strong singing group based here in Kirrie, hear them at the Bowling Club Concert on Saturday night. And keep an eye out for the concerts they put on in the town during the year.

Paul Anderson: legendary fiddle player from Tarland in Aberdeenshire. Paul has played and taught across the world and has a great way of putting over his knowledge and enthusiasm. Making just his second Kirrie appearance this century, he will also be doing the Angus Heritage Week Talk on Sunday lunchtime.

Angus Strathspey and Reel Society: Formed in 1963 and conducted by Kathryn Smeaton since 2015, they are ever presents at the Festival for the opening concert and Kirk Service.

John Dickson: won our bothy ballad competition in 2017 and has kindly agreed to come as a guest this year. Originally fae Newtongrange in Midlothian, he now lives in Tarves, Aberdeenshire and is a highly regarded singer of Scots songs old, new and self-penned.

Murray Douglas: Tremendous mouthorgan player and Festival favourite, Murray bides in Kemnay and is a great supporter of trad music events in the north-east.

Josie Duncan (Sunday only): singer and clarsach player from Lewis, graduate of the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland and this year, with guitarist Pablo Lafuente, won the BBC Radio 2 Young Folk Award.